Postcards
from the Road

Freeze Frame

The mail arrives, and in with the usual bills and solicitations there's an actual hand-written letter. You open it up eagerly, and to your delight, photographs come spilling out as well. There's no better gift on an average day than a missive—with pictures yet—from a dear friend, telling you about some exciting adventure they've had. You relive the experience with them, and perhaps you're even inspired to start planning a journey of your own.

That's how the staff of Destinations felt as we opened the hundreds of submissions sent in for the Vacation Memories Photo Contest 2002. Every envelope contained a universe of exploration, joy, love, or relaxation—and sometimes all four—rolled into an image, frozen in time. With every photograph, we traveled with you and recounted the exotic warmth of Fiji and Hawaii, the history and romance of Paris and Rome, the distinctive beauty of the Oregon and California coasts and the austere magnificence of our American deserts. No wonder we're tired—through the magic of your collective lenses, we traveled to 2,960 locations! And the faces: Old, young and in-between; carefree and exhilarated; in love and in paradise. We made hundreds of friends as we were given the privilege of sharing your vacation joy.

None of our major award winners this year are professional photographers. They're typical owners, just like you, who decided to capture a moment and send it along. We've thoroughly enjoyed getting to know some of you better through your wonderful pictures.

Thanks for the memories!

The illusive reflection of Phantom Rock in the sapphire waters of Crater Lake, chosen by WorldMark owners, and the wistful presence of a tiny girl gazing out upon a cruise ship on the open seas, selected by the company's employees, are just two of the highlights of this year's photo contest. Pull up a chair and go around the world!

Don't Forget!

Three Year Proxy

Remember to submit a three-year proxy, which authorizes WorldMark's Board of Directors to cast your vote at its discretion in the event that you do not vote on an issue.

A proxy authorization does not sign away your right to vote and will not override any vote that you have already cast. When you vote, your vote will supersede the proxy. You can revoke your proxy at any time.

Simply mail in the proxy form that you have received in the mail, or submit a proxy authorization online at www.proxyvoting.com/worldmark. Online submissions will require the 11-digit control number located on your proxy form. All proxies and votes must be submitted by December 16 to count in this year's board of directors election.

New Management Here to Serve You

WorldMark owners will be acquainting themselves with several fresh faces as our management family grows. Troy Kay has recently been hired in the new position of Resort Services Director for WorldMark, where he will work with Resort Operations Corporate Director Dave Akins. Troy has worked in property/timeshare management for 13 years and has honed his resort services skills in positions ranging from front desk to area operations management.

Over at WorldMark Branson, Danny Fletcher has been named assistant manager. Danny owned his own auto parts and machine shop in his home state of Iowa; after selling the business and moving to Branson, he spent six years working for the Marriott Residence Inn.

WorldMark Sundance also has a new assistant manager, Canadian native Peter Larkin. Born in Gravenhurst, Ontario, Peter spent a few years in Britain before arriving in Whistler nine years ago. He has worked in property management and hospitality for the past seven years.

Rounding out the trio of new assistant managers is Fred Spencer at WorldMark St. George. California-born, Fred worked there in the funeral business before moving to Oregon. He began his WorldMark career in 1997 at the front desk of Gleneden and later joined the Manager In Training (MIT) program at Depoe Bay.

Currently in our MIT program, Lucas Downs is learning the ropes at Clear Lake. Born and raised in Bend, Oregon, Lucas served his country in the U.S. Army before starting his hospitality career. He joined the WorldMark team in June 2001 as the Maintenance Supervisor at Eagle Crest and was promoted to MIT of the Central Region this past September.

At our Depoe Bay resort, Bill Weigert claims the MIT spot. A native New Yorker, Bill moved to Hawaii in 1984 and began his resort industry career. He became part of the WorldMark crew in 2001; he has assisted with the opening of our Kihei resort and the management of WorldMark Kapaa Shores.

Good Day and Good News

Port Macquarie and Kirra Beach

The newest member of the South Pacific resort family is Port Macquarie. 11 beautifully appointed two-bedroom units are now available to WorldMark owners at the Northpoint Resort at Port Macquarie. Situated on the north coast of New South Wales, Port Macquarie is one of the leading resorts in the area with both river frontage on the Hastings River, and a series of ocean beaches that start right in town. Offering everything from camel rides along the beach to a koala hospital, Port Macquarie is sure to become a favorite destination!

The 15-story high-rise resort at Kirra Beach is the tallest building constructed by Trendwest to date, and the first that Trendwest has built from the ground up in Australia. Located just a block from one of the best surfing beaches on eastern Australia's Gold Coast, WorldMark Kirra Beach will offer 98 units along with a spa, sauna, gymnasium, cafe, and a luxurious swimming pool. This exciting location is scheduled to open December of 2002.

Annual Owners' Meeting

by WorldMark owner Charlette Archer

This year's Annual WorldMark Owners' Meeting had the same effect on me that it had in the past: I walked away feeling good about the club, and even better about the people running it. Club representatives managed to make over 500 owners feel like they were each being individually addressed.

It was great to be able to gather new information and put faces to names of representatives from Owner Services, The Adventure Club, Trendwest Travel, and the Owner Education Department. It was hard not to want to sign up immediately for the next Owner Education class, take a trip with the Adventure Club, or do something right now to get out there on vacation!

The highlight of the evening for most owners was the announcement of online reservations. It only takes a few minutes: Go to www.worldmarktheclub.com, and click on "Owners Only." Registration is quick and easy, and once you're signed up, you can book a vacation and check on bonus time with the click of a mouse, giving you more opportunities for scheduling your fun. Owners who feel more comfortable going through the Vacation Planning Center will still be able to receive the same excellent service they always have.

If you have never been to the Annual WorldMark Owners' Meeting, I definitely recommend going next year. There is a great deal of information enthusiastically presented by the club, and it's fun to meet other owners, especially if you have been active on the Owner Forum. You'll walk away feeling good about belonging to this club, ready to book a vacation, and hey, the cookies are good too!

We Have a Winner!

comment card drawing

Congratulations to Gregory Franz of Wenatchee, Washington! Gregory was chosen as the winner of a three-night WorldMark stay when his completed comment card was selected in our monthly drawing. Do us and yourself a favor—fill out those cards!

“Weekend Only” Guidelines

During the past summer, the WorldMark Board of Directors undertook a significant examination of the guidelines associated with “weekend only” reservations. We were looking for ways to make this particular vacationing method simpler and easier to administer.

At successive meetings, the board examined various options developed by Dave Herrick, Vice President of Resort Operations. On September 12, 2002, the board approved the following new rules:

GUIDELINE A.6:
A “weekend only” reservation is a two-night, Friday and Saturday night reservation. Any other combination of days shall not be considered a “weekend only” reservation.

GUIDELINE C.8:
There is a two-night minimum stay required on “weekend only” reservations when both Friday and Saturday nights are available within the same type of unit.

These amendments may seem simple enough, but they have far-reaching effects. Therefore, implementation was delayed until November 1, 2002, to allow for the completion of computer programming and staff training.

On behalf of the board of directors, I’d like to thank all of the owners who sent e-mail and letters sharing their views and opinions. Your input was extremely valuable.

Education

This winter I plan to...

“This winter I plan to create family history when my husband, our three grown children, daughter-in-law and grandson spend Christmas in Kauai with WorldMark. We know the memories of this trip will become family heritage for the next generation, and we’re so glad to be giving them this gift!”

– Suzanne Mann-Heintz, Florence, OR

“This winter I plan to start a new life with WorldMark. My fiancée and I married in November; next stop after the wedding—WorldMark Gleneden! We bought in together only a few months after we met. I’m looking forward to a lot of happy memories and awesome vacations with the woman I love and my WorldMark ownership.”

– Jonathon EagleStar, Aloha, OR

“This winter I plan to celebrate Christmas at Big Bear with WorldMark. My husband, my son and I want to play in the snow this winter; we live by Palm Springs and don’t often see snow. – Randy Dunahoo, Banning, CA

“This winter I plan to snowboard at every major resort from Canada to Colorado with WorldMark! This is the real reason I became an owner. I travel a lot, and now with WorldMark I will do it in first-class style.”

– Nadia Mohamed, Burbak, CA

- Grant Spencer, photographer,

Staff Star Award

Two-night stay at the WorldMark resort of their choice, plus a $25 USD Cameraworld.com certificate

We were alone on the beach that day—I was reading, she was playing in the sand—when I looked up to find her gazing out over the ocean at the cruise ship in the distance. It was such a lovely, quiet moment."*

- Carole Hudlow, photographer
Sebastopol, California

Our Judges

Catherine Garrity, Sales Representative, ColorGraphics

Catherine and her husband have been WorldMark owners for over 11 years. Catherine has been in the printing industry for 25 years and does a considerable amount of work for the travel/cruise industry. "I must say, I see many professional travel photos that aren't as good as some submitted for this photo contest," says Catherine. "Keep up the good work, owners!"

Matt has worked for Trendwest in various capacities since 1996 and is currently putting his art degree from the University of Washington to good use in Creative Services for the Marketing Communications department. ## Third Prize
