

Dear WorldMark Owner/Guest,

Thank you for selecting WorldMark Oceanside Harbor for your upcoming vacation. We are very much looking forward to your visit.

Our brightly colored, art deco-designed resort consists of 140 units on five floors, each offering territorial views of the grounds with glimpses of the harbor and ocean. While we are not an oceanfront property, the resort is an easy 5-minute stroll from nearby Oceanside Harbor and the beach. We are uniquely situated in an urban environment adjacent to the freeway and near trains passing through the city of Oceanside—it's busy but very convenient for many activities and attractions.

While you are here you will discover the beauty and wonder that distinguishes San Diego North County as a preferred resort destination. The area offers magnificent coastline, lush inland valleys, picturesque mountains and tranquil deserts. Visitors here enjoy golf, fishing, wineries, gardens, shopping, theme parks, and world famous attractions.

We look forward to hosting you. If you have any further questions, please feel free to call us directly at 760-721-0890.

Sincerely,

Asael Sandoval

Things to See and Do at Oceanside

Oceanside, the northernmost coastal city in San Diego County, is a true beach community offering more than three miles of coastline. This charming town comes complete with an excellent small-craft harbor, sport fishing operations and unique shops and restaurants. Situated in the San Luis Rey Valley, the area's rich history is gracefully preserved in its architecture, as well as its parks and shops.

Downtown Oceanside does its best to combine the old with the new. The city's redevelopment project brought life to new restaurants, shops, museums and a 16-screen movie theater—while keeping beautiful old buildings and businesses that have been in operation for more than 50 years.

There are plenty of things to occupy you here. There's the Historic Oceanside Pier at the heart of the city's oceanfront activities, and Heritage Park, moved in recent years from downtown Oceanside, featuring old-time buildings and special antique collections. And don't forget the Oceanside Harbor with 900 plus pleasure and sport-fishing boats, not to mention fine restaurants, picnic tables and Harbor Village (with shops, eateries and a lighthouse).

Just beyond town you'll discover the scalloped white adobe of the Mission San Luis Rey, founded in 1798. This mission is not only the most sizable of the California Mission chain, but arguably the most architecturally impressive. In North Oceanside you can visit Camp Pendleton, the world's largest U.S. Marine Corps Amphibious Training Base, well recognized for its efforts in preserving ecology and natural resources.

But maybe it's shopping you're looking for—if it is, look no further. A wide variety of malls, boutiques and outlets flood Oceanside: Plaza Camino Real, Fire Mountain Center, Camino North Center and Pacific Coast Plaza, to name a few. And for the golfers among you, coastal golf courses such as El Camino Country Club and Emerald Isle Golf Club capture the beauty and challenge of the valley.

But, just in case you have explored all there is to find within Oceanside itself, venture out to San Diego, just 30 miles south of town. San Diego offers, of course, the world-famous San Diego Zoo—with everything from giant pandas from China and koalas from Australia to tree kangaroos from New Guinea and pygmy chimpanzees from central Africa. Or, get splashed by a killer whale at SeaWorld, take an trolley tour or stop by the Bazaar Del Mundo in Old Town.

The historic San Diego Museum of Art, located near the zoo in Balboa Park, also beckons. This world-class museum is noted for works by old Spanish and Italian masters, South Asian paintings, 19th- and 20th-century American paintings and sculptures and works by contemporary California artists.

And for you sports fans out there, San Diego is ready and waiting. Professional baseball, football and hockey give you year-round options, while whale watching, golfing, deep-sea fishing, roller-blading, bike riding, surfing and sailing take full advantage of Southern California's incredible climate and setting.

And don't forget LEGOLAND, located in Carlsbad, south of Oceanside, which combines 40 hands-on, minds-on, interactive attractions, family rides, shows, restaurants, shopping and landscape features.

Between Oceanside itself and the amazing towns that surround it, you really can't go wrong at WorldMark at Oceanside.
