From Vancouver, BC

Drive south on I-5...

This thoroughly scenic drive is full of natural beauty. Shortly after you cross the border, you will drive through Bellingham, the "hub of northwest Washington." Here you will find a massive shopping area, Bellis Fair Mall, with more than 150 specialty stores and six department stores. If you're not up for shopping, the mall's food court should be more to your tastes. Farther south is Burlington Factory Outlet Mall with more than 50 direct-to-buyer-from-manufacturer shops. If you happen to be there in June, keep an eye out for the Berry and Dairy Days celebrations.

Continue south on I-5 to Everett...

Stroll the boardwalk that runs along the second largest marina on the West Coast. Washington's most popular industrial tour is The Boeing Airplane Assembly Plant. Thousands of visitors from nearly every nation have visited this landmark. The 747/767 Assembly Plant features the world's largest building on its 773-acre site. The actual building is 11 stories tall and all under one roof. The Assembly Plant can accommodate 16 planes in final assembly at one time! The weekday tours are very popular.

The longest railroad tunnel in North America is seven miles long and travels 1000 feet under Stevens Pass.
