On the Way to Whistler

This section includes points of interest and side trips along the way to the resort. For the most direct route, see "Driving Directions" below.

From Portland, OR

Head north on I-5 ...

Relive a "blast from the past" at the Mt. St. Helens National Volcanic Monument Visitor Center five miles east of I-5 off Exit 49 in Washington. The center has dozens of dioramas, exhibits and videos. A cross-section lets you walk into the depths of the mountain to follow the lava flow to the surface. For another look at St. Helens, head east to Hoffstadt Bluffs Viewpoint and Visitor Center.

Continue north on I-5 ...

Visit Olympia, Washington's state capital. Look back at the early years of Washington's statehood with a visit to the State Capital Museum. Nearby attractions include the Capitol Campus, Visitors Center, and Capitol Building. Don't miss the Vietnam Memorial Wall, where Washington soldiers' names are carved in remembrance.

Seattle's waterfront offers much more than great coffee. Watch the Washington State Ferries shuttle across Puget Sound.

Surround yourself with culture in the International District. Opened in 1907, Pike Place Market is the oldest continuously operated farmer's market in the U.S. Tour the award-winning Seattle Aquarium on Pier 59.

Continue north on I-5, then west on Hwy 20 ...

A recommended detour is the charming town of La Conner. Once a quiet fishing village, it now serves as a popular art, antique and dining destination. On the way you'll drive through the beautiful Skagit Valley. This photographer's haven is known for its fields of blazing color as the world's largest tulip crop bursts into bloom.

Return to I-5 and continue north to the border ...

At the U.S./Canadian border is Peace Arch Park, symbolizing the friendly relations between Canada and the United States. After crossing the border, you will find plenty of interesting sites in Vancouver, B.C. Downtown has exciting restaurants and endless shopping. Ride the tram to the top of Grouse Mountain. Enjoy hiking in the summer and horse-drawn sleigh rides and skiing in the winter. Another thrilling attraction is the Capilano Suspension Bridge and Park. This swinging bridge, made from hemp rope and cedar planks, stretches 450 feet across and 230 feet above the Capilano River. Discover water wonders at the Vancouver Aquarium in Stanley Park. Enjoy a 360-degree view from the deck of the Harbour Centre Tower, 553 feet above the city.

Continue on Hwy 15 North to Hwy 1 West. Take the Squamish/Whistler/#99 Exit to Whistler ...

Welcome to Whistler Village. Shopping, dining and taking in live entertainment are favorite activities here at the foot of Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains.

Driving Directions

From Seattle, WA:

- Take I-5 North to Blaine, WA.
- Exit at the Truck Customs to cross the border into Canada.
