Things to See and Do in West Yellowstone

Discover the great outdoors in West Yellowstone. Winter or summer, spring or fall, you'll always find something to do here. And fortunately, there are all kinds of activities and adventures waiting—quite literally—right outside your door. Your resort is just one block away from the west entrance of Yellowstone National Park. The park is perfect for hiking, biking, wildlife viewing, backpacking, fishing, swimming, camping, skiing, snowmobiling, and photography.

The first and oldest national park in the world, Yellowstone covers 3,472 square miles in the states of Wyoming, Montana, and Idaho. A UNESCO World Heritage site, the park is famous for its various geysers, hot springs, and more. Yellowstone contains half of the world's geothermal features, with more than 10,000 examples. Visitors can see hundreds of geysers (including the world-famous Old Faithful), pools of boiling mud, and an amazing assembly of wildlife, such as bears, wolves, bison, and elk.

All vehicles and individuals entering Yellowstone must pay an entrance fee, but it is valid for seven days and also grants access to Grand Teton National Park (just seven miles away from Yellowstone's south entrance) in Wyoming. The fee is $20 for non-commercial vehicles, $15 for motorcycles, and $10 for hikers and cyclists. Bear in mind that the west entrance to the park is closed to motor vehicles from early November to late April every year. It remains open, however, to hikers, cross-country skiers, and to snowmobiles.

There is no public transportation available within the park, and roads can become very crowded when people stop to view wildlife. Be respectful of other motorists to avoid so-called "bear-jams." A few private bus companies offer tours of the park, and one of these—Xanterra Resorts (<http://touryellowstone.com>)—even sells a tour which enables you to see the entire park in a day. This Grand Loop Tour departs in summer only from Gardiner, Mont., 37 miles away from West Yellowstone. Call (307) 344-7311 for information or reservations.

Apart from the park, West Yellowstone caters to visitors in a variety of ways. Shop till you drop in the town's dozens of gift shops, galleries, and specialty stores. Or spend an enjoyable evening taking in a comedy, melodrama, or musical at the Playmill Theatre. The theatre, at 29 Madison Avenue, is open Monday through Saturday, May to September.

Every March, the World Snowmobile Expo is a snowmobiler's delight. The event includes exhibits by equipment vendors, power pulls, and drag racing. Another popular snow sport in West Yellowstone is cross-country skiing. The backcountry and telemark skiing is considered tops in the nation, and the U.S. Nordic and Biathlon teams train in the area.

See and learn about grizzly bears and wolves up close and personal at the Grizzly and Wolf Discovery Center, right across the street from your resort. Yellowstone's IMAX Theatre is also located at the center. "Yellowstone", a 70 mm movie, is shown on a six-story-high screen with stereo surround-sound, and tells the story behind the national park. Learn the history, and preview the wildlife, geothermal activity, and scenic grandeur awaiting your visit—or find out what you missed.

Last but not least, another stop worth visiting is the Museum of the Yellowstone. Housed in the historic Union Pacific Depot, exhibits on the U.S. Cavalry, trappers, cowboys, and Native Americans depict the area's early days.
